DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The original house of the Hallman family burned years ago. According to oral informants in the Jerusalem community, Joe and Evelyn Harper and Cora and William Moore, the house stood on the south side of Jerusalem Church Road and was oriented to the north. It stood two stories in height, had a three bay facade, and had two rooms down and two up. Its design and general appearance approximated that of the Moore family house in Jerusalem, a photograph of which was copied as part of this survey.

BUILDER/ARCHITECT

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

According to the deeds, 178/10, John Hallman purchased 7 acres of property (of which this is one acre) from Samuel Milford in 1904. The price was $109. This purchase of 7 acres would have made Hallman one of the larger landowners in the community.

Samuel Milford was one of the prominent white landowners in the area, and it is possible that Hallman worked for him in some capacity.

It was representative of a type built by many Black landowners near the turn of the century.
